Bl-ispejjeż kontra l-konvenut

The said premises were rented to Joseph Cauchi for the rent of €240 per year that are payable in the amount of €120 every six months;

She wishes to resume possession of the premises above mentioned since:

1. Joseph Cauchi is in default of payment of rent arrears for the years 2016/2017/2018;

2. The applicant is in need of the premises for her own personal use;

3. The respondent allowed the premises to be damaged and this since he abandoned the premises such that the premises are in a state of abandonment and damaged;

4. He no longer resides in the said premises and is residing in other premises that are unknown to the applicant;

The respondent, although duly solicited for all the effects and purposes of law by means of a legal letter and a judicial letter to vacate from the premises and return the keys, remained in default;

In addition, the respondent is leaving the premises closed thus causing prejudice to the applicant because he no longer lives in the same premises but lives somewhere else;

These defaults on part of the respondent constitute valid reasons at law so that the applicant will take back the possession of the premises given to the respondent by rent as above said;

The applicant knows of these facts personally;

As far as the applicant knows, the respondent does not have any defences to bring to the requests of the applicant and accordingly, this Board can proceed to give judgement without proceeding to trial.

Thus, the applicant humbly requests this Honourable Board so that subject to any opportune declaration:

1. It hears this case without proceeding to trial and this in terms of article 16A of Chapter 69 of the Laws of Malta; and

2. Orders the applicant to resume possession of the premises and consequently evict the respondent from the said premises for the reasons abovementioned and this in a short and peremptory period that this Honourable Board deems fit.
